Day 5: New York - Option Tours (Sun, 1/2)

Option A: Atlantic City

The guests will board transportation for Atlantic City. Famous for its boardwalk, casino gambling, sandy beaches, shopping centers, view of the Atlantic Ocean, and serving as the inspiration for the board game Monopoly. Guests can try their luck at one of 11 casinos located in the area, or walk along its charming Boardwalk, filled with shops and restaurants.

Option B: Self Guided New York City Tour

Guest can spend the day on self guided tours of New York. The day is yours to explore. Guests can visit Times Square, the heart of the city's theater district to take in a Broadway show or stroll along the tree lined walks of Central Park. You can blend in among the fast moving crowds in Grand Central Terminal.

Hotel: Sheraton / Hilton or equivalent

DAY 6: New York-Philadelphia-Washington DC (Mon, 1/3)

Depart from NYC in the morning to walk along the historical cobblestone streets along Independence Mall State Park. See the Liberty Bell in its newly renovated home at the Liberty Bell Center and stroll through the centuries old Independence Hall and Congress Hall, birthplace of both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

From Philadelphia, we continue to explore America's proud past by sightseeing at America's seat of governing power - the Capitol Hill and the White House. These two magnificent buildings are home to the Senate and the House of Representatives as well as the President of the United States.

The tour then proceeds to the National Air and Space Museum, featuring the original 1903 Flyer plane designed by the Wright brothers, the Spirit of St. Louis flown by Lindbergh, and actual spacecraft such as the Apollo 11 command module. We then head to the Lincoln, and Jefferson Memorials, where we can honor these notable past presidents. All of these memorials are lined with stunning decorations and the stirring words of these great American heroes. We will then pay tribute to our modern heroes in the armed forces by touring the Vietnam and Korean War Veterans Memorial. The Vietnam Memorial, designed by Maya Lin, is a simple yet touching site containing a monument inscribed with the names of lost and fallen soldiers. The Korean War Veterans Memorial is equally inspiring, capturing the tension and uncertainty of war on faces of the fighting forces. After that you can take a boat on the Potomac River and the Tailor Lake to view the capital from a unique angel.

Hotel: Sheraton / Hilton or equivalent

DAY 7: D.C.-Hershey's-Corning-Niagara Falls (Tue, 1/4)

We will continue to Hershey's Chocolate World. There is the chocolate tour, offering views of the chocolate making process. The tour then continues to the Corning Museum of Glass. The Museum is home to the world's most complete collection of glass, about 4,500 individual pieces and watch artisans in glass-making demonstrations. Afterward, the tour will head to Niagara Falls to enjoy its beautiful night views. At night, we are treated to a light show, where every evening the Falls are lit in the colors of the rainbow. The lighting of the Falls, a 140 year old tradition, allow visitors to enjoy the beauty of the mighty Niagara clearly even at night.

Hotel: Adam's Mark/Holiday Inn or equivalent

DAY 8: Niagara Falls - Boston (Wed, 1/5)

Board the famous Maid of the Mist and chug upriver toward the deafening roar of both the American and the Horseshoe Falls. Stroll on Goat Island with the mist from both falls spraying up in your face. Catch "Niagara: Legends of Adventure," a dramatic 45-minute IMAX film on the new 45X25-foot screen. Remember: our cultural capital is also famous for its fresh lobsters!

Hotel: Sheraton, Doubletree, or equivalent

DAY 9: Boston-Yale University-NYC (Thur, 1/6)

We continue our tour of Boston in the morning by visiting the pristine campuses of Harvard and MIT, both world-class educational institutions. We will also visit prominent sites in Boston such as the State House, built between 1795 and 1797 on Beacon Hill overlooking the Boston Common, and recently featured in the major Hollywood film "The Departed" There will also be an opportunity for a harbor cruise (optional), where you can view Boston's magnificent skyline and Charles River. Visit downtown Boston and Quincy Market. Afterwards, transfer back to New York.

You can arrange your flight out from Boston after 1:30pm or out from New York after 7:00pm.
